

I PLAY FOR THE JR IRISH

THIS MEANS:

- I will try my hardest in practices and games
- I will treat my coaches and teammates with respect
- I will try to listen and learn in every practice and game
- I will come to practice early
- I will practice on my own so I can get better to help me and my team
- I will not complain if I am on the bench
- I will remember to bring my ball (blown up) to practice
- I will take instruction and criticism as a way to learn and get better
- I will not taunt the opponent
- I will play fair and not cheat to try to win
- I will watch games on tv and read books about soccer
- I will be ready to play when my coach calls my name
- I will sub off the field with a cheerful attitude
- I will try to control my language and actions even when I am frustrated
- I will try to become the best player that I can become
- I will practice the things that I know I am weakest at
- I will have the right uniform for games
- I will be a good example to younger Irish players in the club
- I will understand that playing in this club is a privilege
- I will collect my garbage and bottles after the game/practice and put them in the trash
